Baladarshan

BALADARSHAN is a network of dozens of producers groups / individual artisans, throughout South India. But it is first an organization of slums women handcrafts producers from Chennai.

These women are supported by SPEED Trust (Slum People Education and Economic Development) which is the BALADARSHAN's associated Non-Governmental Organization running several programs in Chennai slum areas.

AIM

- Design, production and promotion of handcrafts made by economically and socially deprived women from slum areas, particularly widows and deserted mothers, physically challenged persons and HIV affected patients.

ACTIVITIES

- Wire baskets producers' group, especially dedicated to physically challenged women.
- Tailoring unit focusing on recycled products.

PRODUCTS

- Wire polyethylene baskets.
- Upcycled products.

PEED TRUST

Slum People Education & Economic Development

Slum People Education and Economic Development Trust, started in 2000, concentrates its efforts on one of the biggest slum areas in Chennai, Gandhi Nagar - Sathyavani Muthu Nagar. This NGO runs three main programs:

- EDUCATION provides facilities for slum children, creche, library, computer lab, loans facilitation for college students, tuition centre.
- FAMILY FOLLOW-UP focuses in pulling families out of the deepest poverty, especially isolated mothers, widowed or deserted .
- TRAINING & ECONOMICAL SUPPORT consists on one side in vocational training such as auto-rickshaw driving for women and handicrafts, screen-printing, beautician, and on the other side in micro-credit loans.
